

Homework - Introduction

Get Ready to Change Your Life

Let's look at what has kept you from being financially free.

- How did your parents program you concerning money? Did they teach you to save? Did they teach you about investing, did they teach you to spend, etc.

- What did other adults, teachers, other relatives or others do to program you about money?

- How did your peers program you about money? Did they teach you to live for today?

- What have you learned from the world about money? Did the world program you that you can't be success because you are _____? (Fill in the Blank)
- How does the massive onslaught of advertising affect the way you spend money?

- Has any of the above programming helping you become financially free?

- Is it time to learn new ways? _____

